If you come from European countries

Travel is freely permitted for any reason, including tourism, to and from the following countries:

- Member States of the European Union (in addition to Italy, the following are EU Member States: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia and Sweden).
- There are restrictions for the following EU countries:
 - Bulgaria and Romania
 - *Croatia, Greece, Malta, Spain
- States party to the Schengen Agreement: the EU states plus Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland and Norway.
- United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
- Andorra, Principality of Monaco
- Republic of San Marino and Vatican City State.

* Quarantine is mandatory for all citizens who have stayed in Romania and Bulgaria in the 14 days prior to arrival in Italy.

 From 13 August onwards, citizens who have stayed in Croatia, Greece, Malta and Spain in the 14 days prior to arrival in Italy must

- submit to the competent authorities a certificate attesting that, within 72 hours prior to entering the national territory, they have undergone a molecular or antigenic test, carried out by means of a swab with negative results

or

- undergo a molecular or antigenic test, to be carried out by means of a swab within 48 hours of entering the national territory at the local health authority of reference. While waiting to undergo the test at the local health care company of reference, it is necessary to observe fiduciary isolation at one's own home or residence.

in addition, they must:

- immediately notify the Prevention Department of the health company responsible for the territory, even if asymptomatic.
- promptly report the situation to the Health Authority, in case of onset of COVID-19 symptoms, through the dedicated telephone numbers and undergo trustee isolation.

If you come from non-European countries

Entry into Italy from all non-EU States and/or the Schengen Agreement is allowed, with the obligation to give reasons, only for:

- proven working needs
- of absolute urgency
- health reasons
- proven reasons for study
- return to your home, residence or residence.

Some exceptions are provided for: no motivation is required to enter the national territory, therefore travel is also provided for tourism, but the obligation of health surveillance and fiduciary isolation remains.

- for nationals residing in the following States and territories: Australia, Canada, Georgia, Japan, New Zealand, Rwanda, Republic of Korea, Thailand, Tunisia, Uruguay
- third-country nationals who are long-term residents in accordance with Council Directive 2003/109/EC of 25 November 2003, as well as third-country nationals who derive their right of residence from other European provisions or national legislation and their family members.
